A Remarkable Offering of Women's Fine Jackets.

A large line of superbly tailored jackets of velvet and fine cloths, richly trimmed with braid and fur, has come to us for selling to-morrow at less than the actual cost of making. No woman with a jacket need be going to miss buying one when she sees how handsome they are and how little they cost. They are without question by a big margin the best values offered this season, here or elsewhere.

We've divided the assortment into three lots as follows:

Lot 1—Velvet Jackets, in black, blue, brown and plum, handsomely trimmed with jet, braid and fur-lined throughout with heavy silk—made to sell from $45.00 to $75.00, go at $29.75 ea

Lot 2—Fine Cloth Jackets, richly trimmed, most of them with fur, and lined with plain or fancy silks—made to sell from $25.00 to $40.00, go at $18.75 ea

Lot 3—Jackets of fine smooth and rough cloths, all lined with silk, and many trimmed with braid—made to sell from $16.00 to $22.50, go at $9.75 ea

LONG ISLAND SOCIAL NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Manchester of Oyster Bay, have been visiting friends in Bristol, R. I.

Miss Isold Chellberg, of Sea Cliff, has been spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Sperry.

Mrs. Richard Hawkes, of Glen Cove, has gone to Michigan to visit relatives.

The marriage of Miss Lilla Patterson to Arthur Dickson, of Glen Cove, which will take place on Thanksgiving Day, will be an important social affair. It will be a church wedding, and a large number of invitations will be issued.

These materials have been especially selected with an eye to their durability, and the Suits will be the best wearing and most serviceable garments it is possible to make.

An extra charge of $2.00 will be made for size 43 breast measure and over.

GEORGE MEN COME OUT FOR LOW.

HIS PICTURE HUNG BESIDE THAT OF THE DEAD LEADER'S IN THE VITH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS.

A committee of three from the Henry George Democracy of the Vith Assembly District visited the Low headquarters last night and declared that they were authorized to announce that the Henry George Democracy of the Vith Assembly District had declared for Seth Low. They carried away a lot of the Citizen Union literature and Seth Low pictures. The George Democracy emblem, the rooster, has been taken down from their headquarters, No. 90 Myrtle-ave.; Mr. George's picture has been draped in mourning, and Mr. Low's pictures have been posted and a Low banner raised, as possible for the election of Seth Low.

Edwin Russel, of the Citizen's Headquarters that night, told him yesterday that they will vote for Low, and asked for suggestions as to what they could do for Mr. Low.

A. Robinson of Hempstead, returned last week from a business trip to Europe.

OVERCOATS

TO ORDER MONDAY TO SATURDAY ONLY.

By a lucky stroke, we have bought from the mill agents who had instructions to sell at once, at no matter what price, 1,800 yards of Meltons, Kerseys and Chin-chilla Overcoatings. They are the greatest values ever placed before the public. We have concluded, at the price we intend to quote for an Overcoat made to your order, there is enough to last six days. It is our intention to make a

Strictly First-Class Overcoat in the Latest Style, good quality Italian lining with Skinner satin sleeve linings in all sizes from the smallest to 50-inch bust measure at one price. Owing to the tremendous demand there is sure to be for these coats, we cannot promise delivery for ten days. This coat is actually worth $25.00, made to your measure; from Monday until Saturday at closing time our price will be $12.95
